A celebration of Nelson Mandela

MADIBA – The Musical

Adelaide season announced

Energetic and compelling new stage show Madiba the Musical - a Celebration of the Life of Nelson Mandela will play in Adelaide from 17 to 20 January in the Adelaide Entertainment Centre Theatre. Tickets go on sale on Wednesday 25 July through Ticketek.

The Adelaide season is part of a national tour to Sydney, Canberra and Perth. The show opens in Melbourne in October.

Madiba the Musical, which celebrates the life of the former South African leader who would have turned 100 in July this year, is interwoven with stories of the fight against apartheid and forbidden love in a troubled land.

Australian producer Neil Croker said an exciting line up of talented singers, actors and dancers for MADIBA The Musical has been assembled with the role of Nelson Mandela being played by Perci Moeketsi who was recently announced following an international search.

From a very humble background where a career in the arts was considered nothing but a hobby for a black child, Perci says he's pinching himself that he'll soon be portraying his hero and on an international platform.

The South African star of stage, television and film, Perci Moeketsi, dared to dream the impossible, encouraged by Mandela's own words: "It is impossible until it's done".

"It is beyond a dream come true," beams the triple threat from Pretoria, the South African city where Mandela was both imprisoned and later inaugurated as President - so fitting that a star from this area is chosen for the pivotal role.

Neil Crocker said "Madiba the Musical is a production with both a fantastic and moving story, and some truly fabulous and joyous music and dance. This cast we have assembled of such authentic and talented actors, singers and dancers will deliver to audiences a memorable night of informative, challenging and uplifting theatre".

Perci joins Tim Omaji; Tarisai Vushe; Blake Erickson; Madeline Perrone; Barry Conrad; Ruva Ngwenya; David Denis along with Courtney Bell and Riley Sutton to star in this energetic and compelling new stage show.

Popular Australian Actor and singer, Tim Omaji, also known by stage name Timomatic, plays the role of Sam Onatou, a young black activist who is arrested in South Africa. In prison he meets the man known as "Madiba", Nelson Mandela.

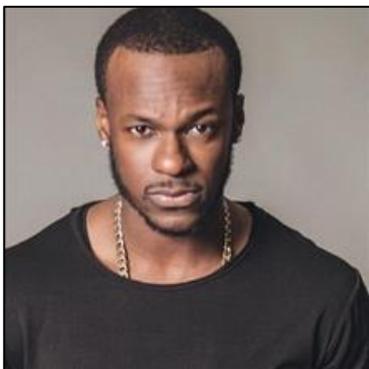

The cast members of Madiba the Musical:

Perci Moeketsi as Nelson Mandela

Perci Moeketsi is a Musical Theatre performer and graduate from Hammanskraal - North of the City of Tshwane (Pretoria). His appearance in Top Actor SA helped him gain early television exposure. He was part of Africa's 1st dance film and international award nominated Hear Me Move. Theatre has always been his true passion. His first role of note was for a community theatre musical called Rorisang and Julie, a township adaptation of Romeo and Juliet where he played lead Rorisang (Romeo). This drew the attention of the Tshwane University of Technology and assisted in his acceptance and enrolment in the Musical Theatre program at the age of 26. His most recent theatre performance was in Gospel Spectacular as choir lead and ensemble at the Joburg Theatre. He has also performed in the South African State Theatre in shows such as Fire: A dance show and Fok-Fok The Musical as lead antagonist. He also performed for 2 years (2016-2017) for the pantomime company: Pretoria Youth Theatre in Centurion playing lead roles in shows such as Pied Piper, Aladdin, Beauty and the Beast, etc... Other appearances in TV include SA's Got Talent with his dance group: Forefront Dance Crew and appearing with the choir he was conducting on Dumisa (Praise). Perci also enjoys writing his own stories, directing, choreography and song writing with rapping being one of his fortes. Motivational speaking and community development is also at the heart of his work, being from an unforgiving humble background, he understands the plight of a lot of the children.

Tim Omaji as Sam Onatou

Tim Omaji is an Australian singer-songwriter and dancer who secured his first leading musical theatre role as Tyrone in 2010 in the Australian touring production of Fame the Musical. Widely recognised by his stage name Timomatic, Tim rose to fame as a contestant on TV show So You Think You Can Dance in 2009. He was a top 3 finalist on Australia's Got Talent in 2011 and released his 4 times platinum ARIA nominated single Set It Off through Sony Music Australia. His latest musical offering 'Mash It Up' premiered on Channel 7's Dance Boss and he will perform in 'In The Heights' at the Hayes Theatre in March.

Barry Conrad as William Xulu

Barry Conrad takes a leading role in MADIBA The Musical following his performances in acclaimed production Beautiful: The Carole King Musical. Barry also toured nationally playing Seaweed in Hairspray Arena Spectacular in 2016, and in 2017 he had the role of Kenickie in Grease: The Arena Experience. Barry made his musical theatre debut in the Australian premiere production of Broadway smash Violet which had critically-acclaimed seasons in Melbourne and Sydney.

Ruva Ngwenya as Winnie Mandela

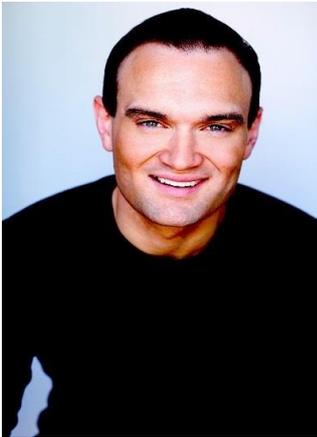

RUVA is an Australian based singer/actor of Zimbabwean decent. At age five she showed signs of exceptional musicianship and went on to study at Victorian College of the Arts Secondary School. In 2013 she went on to the top 6 Girls Category of Australia's XFactor Series. Ruva was cast as Shenzi in the celebrated Disney musical The Lion King. She understudied Killer Queen in the Australian 2016 national tour of We Will Rock You, followed by The Production Company's Dusty the Musical. Most recently, Ruva was seen in the original Australian cast of Beautiful: the Carole King Musical. In 2017, Ruva was a top 24 finalist for season 6 of The Voice and has released an original EP

Humble Brag.

Tarisai Vushe as Sandy Xulu

Tarisai Vushe travelled from Zimbabwe to Australia in her mid-teens and studied music theatre at the Australian Institute of Music. Following her 5th place success in TV series Australian Idol she launched her debut single Head Over Heels in 2010. In 2017 Tarisai secured her first professional musical theatre role in the touring Australian production of Disney musical The Lion King.

Blake Erickson as Peter Van Leden

Blake recently toured with the international production of Cameron Mackintosh's Les Misérables. Prior to this he made his New York debut leading the cast of Stalker: The Musical at the Lynn Redgrave Theater. Recent credits include High Fidelity, Melba, and his acclaimed cabaret Hold Me Closer Logies Dancer, all at Sydney's Hayes Theatre. For his performance in the title role of the one-man show Pearls Before Swine: An Evening With Orson Welles (Neil Gooding Productions), he won Best Actor at the inaugural Sydney Fringe Festival Awards before embarking on a national tour.

Madeline Perrone as Helena Van Leden

Madeline's involvement in the industry began at a young age, placing 3rd in Australia's Got Talent at just 12 years old. Madeline's training includes Film and TV at NYCDA and graduated from The American Musical and Dramatic Academy in New York City. Her first role out of college was Bonnie Parker in Bonnie and Clyde, winning a Broadway World Award of Best Actress in a Musical (regional, national and touring). Madeline toured Fiddler on the Roof (TML Enterprises) as Shprintze (Hodel Cover) after returning from shows in the USA as Wendy in Disney's Peter Pan and Seven Brides for Seven Brothers.

Other credits include Curtains (The Production Co.), Peppa Pig's Big Splash (Life Like Company), Disneyland, Universal Studios, Rock Rhapsody (Good Egg Creative) aboard cruise lines and she was a semi-finalist in the Rob Guest Endowment award (2016)

David Denis as The Narrator

David Denis began dance training at fifteen years of age under the guidance of the Howard sisters at Sydney's Brent Street studios where he later completed the certificate IV in performing arts. David went on a National Tour with The Ambassador group production Ghost: The Musical. David appeared for Disney in The Lion King for four years in Australia and on The West End, London. For GFO he has played Boom-Boom Johnson in Legends! and the role of Tyrone in Kelley Abbey's Fame: The Musical. For Opera Australia David featured as Seabee in South Pacific. On screen David has played Jean-Michel Basquiat in Jim Sharman's film Andy X, and he worked with Peter Jackson on King Kong in the role of Taps. In recent years, David has had success as a contemporary dancer working alongside Kylie Minogue, Natalie Bassingthwaight, Taylor Swift and Guy

Sebastian. David is also a rapper, singer and song writer under the name Davey.
